Attachment to Form 8937, Report of Organizational Action Affecting Basis of Securities

The information in this document does not constitute tax advice and is not intended or written to be used, and cannot be used, for the purpose of avoiding penalties under the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code"). Holders of the Late Tendered Notes (as defined below) should consult their own tax advisors regarding the tax consequences of the transactions to them, including the applicability and effect of all U.S. federal, state, and local and non-U.S. tax laws.

Form 8937, Part I, Boxes 9 and 10

Classification and Description (Box 9)	CUSIP Number (Box 10)
Qorvo 4.375% Senior Notes due 2029	74736KAH4 74736KAG6 (144A) U7471QAF1 (Reg S)
Skyworks 4.375% Senior Notes due 2029	83088MAM4
Qorvo 3.375% Senior Notes due 2031	74736KAJ0 (144A) U7471QAJ3 (Reg S)

Form 8937, Part II, Box 14

Describe the organizational action and, if applicable, the date of the action or the date against which shareholders' ownership is measured for the action

In connection with its acquisition of Qorvo, Inc. ("Qorvo"), completed on October 5, 2026, Skyworks Solutions, Inc. ("Skyworks") offered to exchange any and all outstanding 4.375% Senior Notes due 2029 (the "Qorvo 2029 Notes") and 3.375% Senior Notes due 2031 (the "Qorvo 2031 Notes" and together with the Qorvo 2029 Notes, the "Qorvo Notes") for newly issued Skyworks Notes (the "Skyworks Notes") with the same interest rate, interest payment dates and maturity date (the "Exchange Offer"). In addition, Skyworks solicited consents to amend the indentures governing the Qorvo Notes. The Exchange Offer settled on October 7, 2026 (the "Settlement Date"). Holders of the Qorvo Notes who tendered by June 11, 2026 (the "Early Participation Date"), received for each $1,000 principal amount of Qorvo Notes $1,000 principal amount of Skyworks Notes ($950 exchange consideration plus a $50 "Early Participation Premium") and a cash consent payment. Holders of the Qorvo Notes who tendered after the Early Participation Date received $950 principal amount of Skyworks Notes for each $1,000 principal amount of Qorvo Notes (i.e., did not receive the Early Participation Premium), with cash paid in lieu of any fractional amount of Skyworks Notes, and no cash consent payment (the "Late Tenderers").

Skyworks has determined that, as a result of the Exchange Offer, the exchange of notes held by the Late Tenderers (the "Late Tendered Notes") for Skyworks Notes constituted a "significant modification" within the meaning of Treasury Regulation § 1.1001-3(e), resulting in a deemed exchange (the "Exchange") of Late Tendered Notes for new Skyworks Notes for U.S. federal income tax purposes. The holders of the Qorvo Notes that received the Early Participation Premium are not the subject of this Form 8937. Skyworks intends to take the position that the exchange of those notes did not result in a significant modification within the meaning of Treasury Regulation § 1.1001-3(e) and, accordingly, did not result in an exchange for U.S. federal income tax purposes.

Form 8937, Part II, Box 15

Describe the quantitative effect of the organizational action on the basis of the security in the hands of a U.S. taxpayer as an adjustment per share or as a percentage of old basis

The exchange of the Late Tendered Notes for Skyworks Notes pursuant to the Exchange should qualify as a "recapitalization" (within the meaning of Section 368(a)(1)(E) of the Code) for U.S. federal income tax purposes if the respective Late Tendered Notes and Skyworks Notes each constitute "securities" for U.S. federal income tax purposes. The term "security" is not defined in the Code or in the Treasury Regulations issued thereunder and, as applied to debt obligations, the meaning of the term "security" is unclear. Skyworks intends to take the position that the Exchange will qualify as a recapitalization for U.S. federal income tax purposes.

If the Exchange qualifies as a recapitalization for U.S. federal income tax purposes, a holder's aggregate tax basis in the Skyworks Notes received in the Exchange generally should equal such holder's aggregate adjusted tax basis in its Late Tendered Notes immediately before the Exchange (excluding accrued but unpaid interest), increased by gain recognized, if any, and decreased by the amount of cash, if any, received (excluding any cash received attributable to accrued but unpaid interest or in lieu of fractional Skyworks Notes).

If the Exchange does not qualify as a recapitalization for U.S. federal income tax purposes, the Exchange would be a taxable transaction for U.S. federal income tax purposes. In that case, a holder's aggregate tax basis in the Skyworks Notes received in the Exchange generally would equal the issue price of the Skyworks Notes (described below in Box 16).

Holders of the Late Tendered Notes should consult their own tax advisors regarding the possible classification of the Late Tendered Notes and Skyworks Notes as securities and the tax consequences of the Exchange to them.

Form 8937, Part II, Box 16

Describe the calculation of the change in basis and the data that supports the calculation, such as the market values of securities and the valuation dates

The basis in a holder's Skyworks Notes is calculated in the manner described above in Box 15.

Skyworks has determined that, as of the Settlement Date, the Skyworks Notes were "traded on an established market" within the meaning of Treasury Regulation § 1.1273-2(f). Accordingly, Skyworks has determined that the issue price of the Skyworks Notes received by the Late Tenderers in the Exchange as of the Settlement Date was as follows (expressed as a percentage of face amount):

Debt Tranche	Issue Price (%)
Skyworks 4.375% Senior Notes due 2029	94.834
Skyworks 3.375% Senior Notes due 2031	89.034

As described above in Box 15, if the Exchange does not qualify as a recapitalization for U.S. federal income tax purposes, then the Late Tenderers generally would take a tax basis in the Skyworks Notes equal to the respective issue price, which has been determined under section 1273 of the Code.

Generally, a holder of the Late Tendered Notes that received cash in lieu of a fractional Skyworks Note is treated as having received the fractional amount in the exchange and then as having had it redeemed for cash and recognizes gain or loss equal to the cash received less the tax basis allocated to the fractional amount.

Holders of the Late Tendered Notes should consult with their own tax advisors as to the particular tax consequences of the transaction to them.

Form 8937, Part II, Box 17

List the applicable Internal Revenue Code section(s) and subsection(s) upon which the tax treatment is based.

Sections 354, 356, 358, 368, 1001, 1012 and 1273 of the Internal Revenue Code.

Form 8937, Part II, Box 18

Can any resulting loss be recognized?

If the Exchange qualifies as a recapitalization for U.S. federal income tax purposes, no loss would be recognized for U.S. federal income tax purposes, except with respect to cash received in lieu of fractional Skyworks Notes.

If the Exchange does not qualify as a recapitalization for U.S. federal income tax purposes, the Exchange may result in a loss to a holder that can be recognized for U.S. federal income tax purposes.

Holders of the Late Tendered Notes should consult with their own tax advisors as to the particular tax consequences of the transaction to them.

Form 8937, Part II, Box 19

Provide any other information necessary to implement the adjustment, such as the reportable tax year

The organizational action occurred on October 7, 2026. The reportable tax year is 2026 for calendar-year taxpayers.

Skyworks Solutions, Inc.

Exchange of certain 4.375% Qorvo Notes due 2029 for 4.375% Skyworks Notes due 2029, and certain 3.375% Qorvo Notes due 2031 for 3.375% Skyworks Notes due 2031

Tax Information Provided by Skyworks Solutions, Inc. Pursuant to Treasury Regulation § 1.1273-2(f)(9): Issuer's Determination and Communication of "traded on an established market" Status and Issue Price of Newly Issued Debt

In connection with its acquisition of Qorvo, Inc. ("Qorvo"), completed on October 5, 2026, Skyworks Solutions, Inc. ("Skyworks") offered to exchange any and all outstanding 4.375% Senior Notes due 2029 (the "Qorvo 2029 Notes") and 3.375% Senior Notes due 2031 (the "Qorvo 2031 Notes" and together with the Qorvo 2029 Notes, the "Qorvo Notes") for newly issued Skyworks Notes (the "Skyworks Notes") with the same interest rate, interest payment dates and maturity date (the "Exchange Offer"). In addition, Skyworks solicited consents to amend the indentures governing the Qorvo Notes. The Exchange Offer settled on October 7, 2026 (the "Settlement Date"). Holders of the Qorvo Notes who tendered by June 11, 2026 (the "Early Participation Date"), received for each $1,000 principal amount of Qorvo Notes $1,000 principal amount of Skyworks Notes ($950 exchange consideration plus a $50 "Early Participation Premium") and a cash consent payment. Holders of the Qorvo Notes who tendered after the Early Participation Date received $950 principal amount of Skyworks Notes for each $1,000 principal amount of Qorvo Notes (i.e., did not receive the Early Participation Premium), with cash paid in lieu of any fractional amount of Skyworks Notes, and no cash consent payment (the "Late Tenderers").

Skyworks has determined that, as a result of the Exchange Offer, the exchange of notes held by the Late Tenderers (the "Late Tendered Notes") for Skyworks Notes constituted a "significant modification" within the meaning of Treasury Regulation § 1.1001-3(e), resulting in a deemed exchange (the "Exchange") of Late Tendered Notes for new Skyworks Notes for U.S. federal income tax purposes. The holders of the Qorvo Notes that received the Early Participation Premium are not the subject of this statement. Skyworks intends to take the position that the exchange of those notes did not result in a significant modification within the meaning of Treasury Regulation § 1.1001-3(e) and, accordingly, did not result in an exchange for U.S. federal income tax purposes.

Skyworks has determined that, as of the Settlement Date, the Skyworks Notes were "traded on an established market" within the meaning of Treasury Regulation § 1.1273-2(f). Accordingly, Skyworks has determined that the issue price of the Skyworks Notes received by the Late Tenderers in the Exchange as of the Settlement Date was as follows (expressed as a percentage of face amount):

Debt Tranche	Issue Price (%)
Skyworks 4.375% Senior Notes due 2029 (CUSIP 83088MAM4)	94.834
Skyworks 3.375% Senior Notes due 2031 (CUSIP 83088MAN2)	89.034

Pursuant to Treasury Regulation § 1.1273-2(f)(9), Skyworks' determinations in this statement are binding on a holder of the Skyworks Notes unless such holder explicitly discloses that its determinations are different from Skyworks' determinations on a timely filed U.S. federal income tax return for the taxable year that includes its acquisition date of the Skyworks Notes.

This notice is only intended to fulfill Skyworks' notification obligation under Treasury Regulation § 1.1273-2(f)(9) and does not constitute tax advice. Holders are encouraged to consult their own tax advisors regarding their particular consequences relating to the transaction.
