

2023 Annual Meeting of Stockholders Q&A

Below are questions appropriately and timely submitted during the Annual Meeting of Stockholders (the “Annual Meeting”) of Skyworks Solutions, Inc. (the “Company”), held virtually on Wednesday, May 10, 2023. Please note that all answers below are based on the Company’s current policies, guidelines, and expectations, which are subject to change. The answers below are accurate as of the date of the Annual Meeting, and the Company undertakes no obligation to update its answers to these questions if circumstances should change in the future. Further, the Company assumes no responsibility for the content or accuracy of the text of the questions submitted by stockholders, which have been reproduced below as submitted.

Certain statements presented in the answers below constitute forward-looking statements as defined in the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. These forward-looking statements may include projections and information relating to future events and expectations of Skyworks. We caution you that actual results may differ materially and adversely from those projected in the forward-looking statements as a result of certain risks and uncertainties, including, but not limited to those noted in our most recent earnings press release and those detailed from time to time in our most recent Form 10-K and Form 10-Q filings, which you may obtain for free at the SEC’s website at <http://www.sec.gov>.

Q: My question relates to the issue of officer personal liability for fiduciary duty violations. Delaware corporate law now permits corporations to amend their certificate of incorporation to limit personal liability of senior corporate officers for monetary damages in connection with an officers breach of their fiduciary duty of care. Has the Board discussed the officer exculpation issue, and if so, is there consideration of advancing a certificate amendment?

As Mr. Chase noted during the Annual Meeting in response to this question, the Company has provided information related to this topic in our publicly available materials. We refer those interested to that discussion in our proxy statement filed with the SEC on March 24, 2023, and in particular the disclosure on page 60 regarding Proposal 5.

Q: What percent of SWKS employee office work is done from home?

As Mr. Griffin noted during the Annual Meeting, the Company has returned to a full-time onsite work policy consistent with practice prior to the Covid-19 pandemic.

Q: How many dollars in buybacks in 2023 compared to 2022?

As Mr. Chase noted during the Annual Meeting, the Company has provided information related to this topic in our publicly available materials, and we refer those interested in that information to page 12 of our Form 10-Q filed with the SEC on May 9, 2023, page 12 of our Form 10-Q filed with the SEC on February 7, 2023, and page 56 of our Form 10-K filed with the SEC on November 23, 2022.

Q: What percent of SWKS business involves China?
