

New Product Announcement

Family of High-efficiency Wide Instantaneous Bandwidth, Power Amplifiers for 4G LTE and 5G NR Applications

Skyworks is pleased to introduce a complete family of high-efficiency power amplifiers (PAs) designed for the stringent requirements of enterprise small cell radios. These devices offer wide instantaneous bandwidth with high gain and are fully input/output matched. Active biasing circuitry is integrated to compensate for PA performance over temperature, voltage, and process variations. With a compact 5 x 5 mm package, the SKY663xx-11 family of PAs is ideal for 5G systems operating from 2.3 to 5 GHz. Skyworks' high-efficiency PAs are available with major transceiver reference designs.

Features:

- High efficiency and power addresses small cell requirements where power is always limited
- Wide bandwidth enables higher data rates for newer 5G systems
- Single 5V power supply for quick and easy implementation
- On-chip active bias circuit provides excellent gain tracking over temperature, voltage and process variations
- Compact pin-to-pin compatible package (16-pin, 5 x 5 x 1.3 mm)
